ORIGINAL RULE NO. 11

INTERRUPTION OF SERVICE

A. The Company agrees to use reasonable diligence in rendering continuous service and in providing for the collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal of sewage but the Company does not guarantee non-interruption of such service and shall not be liable for damages in case such supply should be interrupted or fail by reason of an act of God, the public enemy, accidents, strikes, legal processes, state, county or municipal interferences, breakdowns or damage to the machinery or supply, processing and distribution or any cause beyond the control of the Company.

B. The Company reserves the right to discontinue sewer service for the purpose of making connections or extensions, repairs, raising or lowering of its pipe, or for any alterations, improvements, repairs, emergencies, or in connection with its business, and will not be liable for damages occasioned by interruption of or reduction in service when such interruptions or reductions are necessary to make repairs or changes in the Company's collection or transmission facilities. The Company will endeavor to give reasonable notice in advance of any planned interruption or reduction in service.
