Page number 2 of 2 for Findings required for rulemaking adoption.

This rulemaking was undertaken in response to the passage of Senate Bill 308 during the 2017 New Mexico Legislative session. Senate Bill 308 made extensive changes to NMSA 1978, Section 63-9H-6, of the New Mexico Rural Telecommunications Act (the "RTA") concerning the State Rural Universal Service Fund (the "SRUSF"). The major changes to this section of the RTA accomplished the following: (1) redefinition of "universal service"; (2) addition of a fixed amount, per-connection charge option for funding the SRUSF; (3) addition of a requirement that no less than sixty percent of support received by eligible telecommunications carriers be used to deploy and maintain broadband internet access; (4) reformulation of the methodology for calculating payments to access reduction support recipients; and (5) establishment of a broadband program. Pursuant to the rulemaking process, including consideration of written comments and a public hearing, the Commission has repealed and replaced 17.11.10 NMAC, the Commission's SRUSF Rule. The replacement rule includes provisions responsive to the changes to the RTA as well as to recent regulatory changes by the Federal Communications Commission.
