FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 8, 2008

COMMISSIONER SANDY JONES TO HOLD OPEN OFFICE HOURS IN LORDSBURG

SANTA FE, N.M. - New Mexico Public Regulation Commission (NMPRC) Vice-Chairman Sandy Jones (Dist.5) will hold “Open Office Hours” in Lordsburg, New Mexico on Friday July 11, 2008, from 3p.m. - 6p.m.

Commissioner Jones will bring Commission staff to Lordsburg to answer any questions on current issues and industries the NMPRC regulates, such as utilities, telecommunications, transportation, managed health care, consumer affairs and other regulatory concerns.

“In light of the fact the NMPRC affects all New Mexicans some form, from insurance to utility rates, it is important that we bring key staff to Lordsburg to listen and assist in any matters folks might have,” said Jones. “I’m interested in hearing about issues, concerns and problems residents may have and how we can be responsive to their needs; constituent service is job one.”

Area residents and businesses are invited to discuss issues or concerns with key NMPRC personnel and Commissioner Jones.

Jones and Commission staff will be available to residents and others in the community at:
James H. Baxter Civic Center, 313 East 4th Street, Lordsburg, New Mexico
