NEWS RELEASE

Taos to Host PRC Commission's Regular Meeting on June 15

SANTA FE – The public is invited and encouraged to attend the regular open meeting of the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission (PRC) in Taos on Wednesday, June 15, and meet the elected officials who represent them at the PRC.

Public Regulation Commissioners will hold the June 15 meeting at the Taos County Commission Chambers, located at the Taos County Complex, 105 Albright St., in Taos.

“This is a great opportunity for residents of the Taos area to see their government in action, and observe their elected officials doing the work of the public,” stated Commission Chair Valerie Espinoza, who represents District 3 which encompasses Taos, Santa Fe and north-central New Mexico. “I look forward to welcoming District 3 constituents as well as residents from throughout New Mexicans.”

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., and is expected to wrap up at approximately 2:30 p.m.

About the NMPRC

The NMPRC regulates public utilities, telecommunications companies and motor carriers operating in the State of New Mexico. It also administers the State Fire Marshal's Office, the New Mexico Firefighters Training Academy in Socorro, N.M., and the Pipeline Safety Bureau.
