NEWS RELEASE

PERA Building's East Entrance Restricted Wednesday & Thursday

SANTA FE – The New Mexico General Services Department's Facilities Management Division informed state employees Monday afternoon that the PERA Building's east access would be restricted for two days this week. Handicapped accessibility will still be available at the building's east entrance.

The automatic sliding magnetic glass doors located at the building's east entrance will be replaced with doors identical to the standard entry glass doors located a few feet away. Employees and the public wishing to access the building from the east parking lot are advised to exercise caution if utilizing the east entrance, or to use one of the building's west entrances Wednesday, May 23 and Thursday May 24.

The General Services Department apologizes for any inconvenience the restricted access may cause to the public and to employees, adding, "Thank you for your assistance and cooperation during this process."

The PERA Building is located across the street from the Roundhouse at 1120 Paseo de Peralta, and is the site of the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission (NMPRC), the Office of the Superintendent of Insurance, and the Children, Youth & Families Division.

The NMPRC's open meeting will be held Wednesday, May 23, beginning at 9:30 a.m.
