Commission Chair Montoya Invites Public to Speak on PNM Proposal to Shut Down 2 Units at San Juan Power Plant

New Mexico Public Regulation Commissioner Karen Montoya (District 1) is calling on the public to make public comment on a proposal that will affect their electric bills.

Constituents are invited to make public comment to the PRC regarding the application issued by Public Service Company of New Mexico (PNM) for approval to abandon two of the four units located at the San Juan Generating Station, and their plan to replace energy lost by the possible closure.

Commissioners representing the PRC will be on hand at the African American Performing Arts Center on the EXPO New Mexico Fairgrounds, located at 310 San Pedro Dr. NE, in Albuquerque, beginning at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 18.

Previous public hearings have been held in Santa Fe and in Farmington.

The Public Regulation Commission expects to make a decision on PNM's proposal in the weeks ahead.

For more information, visit the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission on the web at: www.nmprc.state.nm.us or call the PRC toll-free at 1-888-427-5772.
